THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW.

FIRST—
THAT Customers can always rely on our goods—place the most implicit confidence in them—our aim has ever been to meet customer's needs.

SECOND—
THAT No matter which way the mercury jumps people can buy from us just the same. We've got something for everybody to wear for every minute in the twenty-four hours.

THIRD—
THAT We can do nothing unnatural or impossible. We can't paint a cork so as to resemble a rock that it'll sink to the bottom if cast into a stream, but

FOURTH—
THAT We are selling all kinds of Boots, Shoes and Rubber Goods at prices which we guarantee are the lowest in this or any other city in the Union.

FIFTH—
THAT We think the above argument should convince every man, woman and child that the place to buy Boots and Shoes is from FERRISS & LAPHAM, 148 East Main Street, Decatur, Ill.

HOLINESS PEOPLE IN CAMP.
A City of Tents at Oakland Park—
Doctrine of Christian Purity.
Names of the Preachers—Free Admission.

This afternoon the annual state encampment of the Illinois Holiness Association began at Oakland Park. It will continue every day for ten days, and will bring hundreds of visitors to Decatur to go into camp and participate in the services to be held there and four times a day beneath the large pavilion—the arena that was used during the prohibition meeting. There will be no over living tents in use. The State Association was formed 20 years ago, with members from all denominations. It is incorporated under the State laws. None of the officers are ministers. Nearly all are laymen. The secretary and general managers are J. W. Welsh, of Hindsboro, Ill. The association does not exist for profit, and none of the officers or ministers receive pay, except as the association may see fit to give. Free will offerings are accepted, but in case of shortage, to cover expenses the members of the association go down into their pockets and make good the deficiency.

It is stated by an authority that the association exists because the members could not rest the true doctrine of the Methodist faith, as they see it, preached from the pulpit. Their doctrine is that Christians are made perfect in love in this life and that they do not have to wait until they die to receive the great blessing of purity of heart and complete sanctification. They quote the scriptures as follows: "Be ye holy as I am holy," "Be ye therefore perfect even as your Father which is in Heaven is perfect," "The blood of Jesus cleanseth us from all sin."

There will be no admission for the grounds. All are welcome. Meats, cereals and luncheon will be served, but the sale of tobacco, cigars, peanuts and pop is forbidden.

THE MINISTERS.
Prominent ministers have been engaged for the meeting. They include Revs. Joseph H. Smith, of Indianapolis; E. J. D. Popper, of Philadelphia; G. D. Watson, of Windsor, Florida; also John A. Wood, of California; M. L. Hays and L. B. Kunk, of Illinois. Scores of sound conversions are expected.

Under a state warrant Charles Hardy was subsequently arrested for assault and battery on Mr. Owen. The trial will be had in Justice Hahnbach's court on Thursday, August 22. He gave bail in the sum of $100 for his appearance. Elmer Troutman bailman.

A QUEER VISITOR.
One Way of Finding a Stolen Horse Lovington to the Front.

This morning upon the steps of Decatur appeared a queer visitor in the person of N. C. Cunningham, a former living near Lovington. The prime purpose of whose visit was to find a fortune teller who would reveal to him where he could find an $80 horse stolen from his place on August 24. Mr. Cunningham was in a dazed condition and would not listen to the scolding of a friend, who was more practical and suggested that he had better call on Marshall Mason and put the case in his hands.

Later Mr. Cunningham had a confidential chat with a Republican reporter. He said: "I'll tell you, mister, I kinder think there is something in the fortune telling business. If I could only find the one I want to see I think he could tell me where to find that horse. A friend of mine told me the Decatur fortune teller can reveal wonderful things can even tell the address of a man he has never seen. I found out him before I go home, for I not only want to find that horse, but I think he can tell me where he got that valuable horse for me a year ago."

The reporter couldn't tell Mr. Cunningham the address of the fortune teller, but left him with the suggestion that he would probably save time and money by first seeing Marshall Mason, who makes no pretensions to revealing hidden secrets, but has a way of finding stolen property and capturing thieves that is accepted as practical and sensible.

News Around Home.
When they put a man in the county jail at Paris, and he gets out at 27, they have a good case of lunacy against him.

Miss Mary Chalmers was buried at Matton Sunday. She was a teacher in the Madison and Charleston schools for several years.

A. E. Stearns' large barn at Matton, containing 15 tons of broomcorn, was destroyed by fire Sunday morning. Loss, $2000. Insured.

Mrs. N. Freeman and daughter, of Piper City, were killed by lightning in their buggy Saturday. A baby in the mother's lap escaped unhurt.

According to the new city directory, the population of Decatur is 27,000 and Normal 3,000. This shows a gain of 2,000 in the two places in two years.

Fifteen dwelling houses have been erected at Tazewell this year, and ten more are being built. Also, a flour mill costing $20,000, and a fine hall for the Odd Fellows.

A reunion of the Auer-Deek families is to be held at Paris, and the most elaborate preparations are making for the event. It is expected that several hundreds will come from Ohio, Washington, D. C., and the central point of the Ohio branch of the family.

Bought the Shively Place.
Some days ago the Republican indicated that Mr. Henry Shively, who had just returned from Europe, was looking about for a suitable lot in town on which to erect a handsome residence. He has succeeded in finding a lot which fills his fancy. Yesterday he purchased the E. W. Shively property on West Prairie street, south side, third lot east of College street. This lot has a frontage of 60 feet and is at present occupied by a one-story frame dwelling. The consideration was $3,000. It is the purpose of Mr. Shively to put up a modern dwelling this year to cost something like $10,000.

Mr. Shively is figuring on putting up a gallery building near the northeast corner of Central Park. His plans are important as yet.

Will Defend Faunce.
Attorney Thomas Lee has been employed to defend Jack Faunce who is in jail, held on the recommendation of the coroner's jury for the murder of Mat McKinley, who was shot on the night of July 3, on South Franklin street.

SEQUEL TO A MARRIAGE.
Action for Divorce by Sylla Madison Wedded Four Years Ago.

A suit for a divorce was commenced to the September term of court to-day, the papers being filed in the circuit clerk's office by the complainant's attorney, Fred A. Brown. The complainant is Sylla Madison, a former of Long Creek township. Four years ago he was married to Fanny Holton in the circuit clerk's old office, when David Foster, then a justice of the peace, performed the ceremony. David thought of course he would receive the usual fee, $2.00, but after the knot was tied, Sylla made the announcement that he didn't have a dollar to his name. The couple had come in from the home district in Mr. Zion township, and as they knew that "Spino Pastor" formerly resided in Mr. Zion, they doubtless thought they could work him for the fee. A slight embarrassment followed the demand for the fee, when the bride and groom suggested that they would bring him in $2.00 worth of blackberries as soon as they could pick them. Foster accepted the offer but ever since he has been looking in vain for the berries, like the Jewish money lender for the letter that never comes. Mr. Foster is one of the clerks in the circuit clerk's office, and to-day when the divorce papers were filed the one had a special interest for him.

Sylla was sick something over two years ago. In his ill he sets forth that at the time Fanny deserted him, running off to the west with a party named McCoy. He has not heard of her since and cannot locate her. He asks for a divorce on the ground of desertion.

The blackberry fee seems to have been a hoodoo for Sylla and Fanny. Had they put up in the ruin of the realm doubtless they would still be living together in criminal bliss.

Mr. Foster to-day cancelled his claim.
